Indiana Sheep Expo

Purpose

The purpose of the Indiana Sheep Expo is to provide a weekend filled with fun for young sheep enthusiasts and their families. Competitive events as well as social activities will be available for exhibitors to better get to know each other and create lasting friendships.

Rules

- Exhibitors must be 21 years old or younger on June 1, 2009 and must be a resident of Indiana.
- Breeding classes will consist of the following:
  - Ram lamb: born September 1, 2008 and after
  - Yearling ewe: must be over 1 year old and under 2
  - Fall ewe lamb: born September 1, 2008 through December 31, 2008
  - Spring ewe lamb: born January 1, 2009 and after
- Slick shorn classes and fitted classes will be available for Dorsets and Hampshires.
- Exhibitors in the breeding show may show more than 1 breed, but are limited to 2 entries per class (maximum of 2 ram lambs, 2 yearling ewes, 2 fall ewe lambs, 2 spring ewe lambs per breed).
- Exhibitors are limited to 1 entry in photo and logo contests and 1 ram fleece and 1 ewe fleece.
- Exhibitors must show their own entries unless permission has been granted by the show management. If an exhibitor has more than 1 entry in a class, another junior exhibitor may show second animal. Yearling ewe classes will be allowed to have two showmen; all other classes are allowed only one showman.
- Animals may begin arriving at 12:00 PM on Friday, June 12, 2009.
- All animals must be penned in the available barn. No penning in trailers. Bedding allowed includes straw and shavings.
- All animals must be designated as to what show they will be entered. No dual entries.
- Breeding animals must have registration papers or proof of sale.
- Breeding animals must follow the breed standards as determined by the respective breed association.
- The IJCLC Sanctioned Market Shows will follow all IJCLC rules and regulations.
- Market lambs must be shorn within 5 days.
- Commercial ewes will be shown by weight.
- Any market lamb entry must be shown in all three market shows. An exhibitor reserves the right to scratch an animal prior to the show with no entry fee refund. No substitutions.
- Once an entry card is turned in to the show management, no changes can occur.
- No visible signs of contagious disease i.e. fungus, soremouth.
- No alcohol on grounds.
- No inhumane treatment of animals will be allowed.
- Unsportsmanlike conduct will not be tolerated. Any exhibitor and/or family members may be excused from the ISE for any behavior deemed improper by the show management.
- Any protest must be submitted to the show management prior to the showing of the supreme awards. The protest must be submitted in writing with a $250 money order, cashiers check, or cash. This deposit shall be forfeited if the protest is not sustained.
- Show management is not responsible for accidents or losses.
- The show management reserves the final and absolute right to interpret these rules and regulations and any violation will subject exhibitors to penalties the show management may order.

Promotional Contests

Photo Contest

Submit 3" x 5" or 4" x 6" photo of your sheep. Limit one per exhibitor. Photo should be mounted on color background with at least a 1" border. Photos can be of one or more sheep and/or lambs. Photos must be taken by exhibitor.

Logo Contest

Develop a logo on an 8 1/2" x 11" paper with promotes your sheep or farm. Limit one entry per exhibitor.

Wool Show

Enter no more than 1 ram fleece and 1 ewe fleece. The fleece may be tied or untied.

Showmanship

Exhibitors will be able to enter in the market lamb showmanship and the breeding sheep showmanship to be held on Friday. The animals in the showmanship classes must be entered in the exhibitors name in the respective shows. The showmanship classes held in conjunction with the market lamb shows on Saturday and Sunday will not count towards the High Point Award.

Judging Contest

Exhibitors may enter the judging contest to be held on Friday afternoon at 5:00. Registration will be held in the show ring on Friday 4:30-5:00. The contest will consist of four classes (placing only): two market classes and two breeding classes. Officials will be available to critique the classes. Judging Contest results will count for the High Point Award.

Dodge ball

Exhibitors may enter the dodge ball tournament as a team or individual who will be placed on a team by the show management. Each team will consist of 1 novice or junior, 2 intermediates, 2 seniors, and 1 adult for a total of 6 team members. Each team must include at least 2 females. Dodge ball activities will not count towards the High Point Award.
