

For More Information:

Robyn Heine
Make It With Wool Indiana State Director
PH: 317/416-4545
Email: robynheine@yahoo.com

State Winners Announced for “Make It With Wool” Contest
Three Advance to the National MIWW Contest

Indianapolis (August 11, 2020) – Results of the 2021 Indiana State Make It With Wool Contest held at the Indiana State Fair are in.

The first-place winners in the junior, senior and adult divisions will represent Indiana at the National MIWW Contest in January 2022 in San Diego at the American Sheep Industry convention.

Junior Division:

First Place: Katherine Jackson of Martinsville
Second Place: Katelyn Ford of West Lafayette

Senior Division:

First Place: Olivia Reynolds of Bluffton

Adult Division:

First Place: Annette Richard of Indianapolis

Made for Others:

First Place: Kasey Clear of South Bend

Wearable Accessories:

First Place: Kay Brown of Fort Wayne
Second Place: Case Runyan of Fort Wayne
Third Place: Traci Bultemeier of Fort Wayne

Home Decor:

First Place: Traci Bultemeier of Fort Wayne
in conjunction with the American Sheep Industry annual convention.

The competition sponsored by the Indiana Sheep Association showcases and promotes the beauty and versatility of wool fabrics, yarns, and fibers and encourages personal creativity in sewing, knitting, crocheting, spinning, weaving, and other needlework arts. All contestants must select, construct, and model their own garment(s) made from more than 60 percent wool for the traditional categories. Other categories are submitted and judged on use of wool and execution of the project.

For more information, please check out the MIWW website, www.makeitwithwool.com, or visit the Indiana Make it With Wool facebook page or the Indiana Sheep Association website www.indianasheep.com.

###